

Online Booking Systems

Description

Booking systems for restaurants, hotels, hairdressers and beauty salons have been around for a while. There are so many competing booking systems it is hard to know which one to choose. Now with Covid restrictions, it is absolutely essential to have an online booking service for your business. No longer can customers just turn up!

Now Google offers integration with their search engine which is great for the customer but tricky for the business owner to know which is the best online booking option given the number of booking systems available that will integrate with Google. There is also the added technical complication of integrating your choice with Google. View the selection of online booking systems that integrate with Google >>

It is advisable to do a bit of home work before you sign up to an online booking platform for your business. there are a number of factors to consider. If you are looking to add an online book ing system to your business or already have one and are considering a change then now is the time to call us.
