

Building the transformation community across government

Description

Transforming Together

Source: Building the transformation community across government

The Infrastructure and Projects Authority recently drew together insights from experience to inform the design and delivery of future major capital programmes. It's based on a review of case study experience, and discussions with leaders from the programmes. It shows how the community has successfully worked together to improve the delivery of major capital programmes.

Category

1. News

Date Created

15/07/2016